The company engages a channel partner (“Partner” or “Channel Partner”) who has contacts within the government to promote and sell its products and services in the above market. In connection with the above, the Partner pays two (2) government officials $250 each. The Partner takes the position that these payments were not made to secure any government business, but rather to build relationships to position Avaya’s business in the market.

Is the Partner potentially in breach of anti-bribery/anti-corruption laws and regulations and Avaya’s Anti-Bribery/Anti-Corruption policy? (Select one)

- A. No, because the Partner didn’t actually solicit any business for Avaya and the dollar value of the payment is relatively small.
